Reframing Minimalism

Minimalism ?

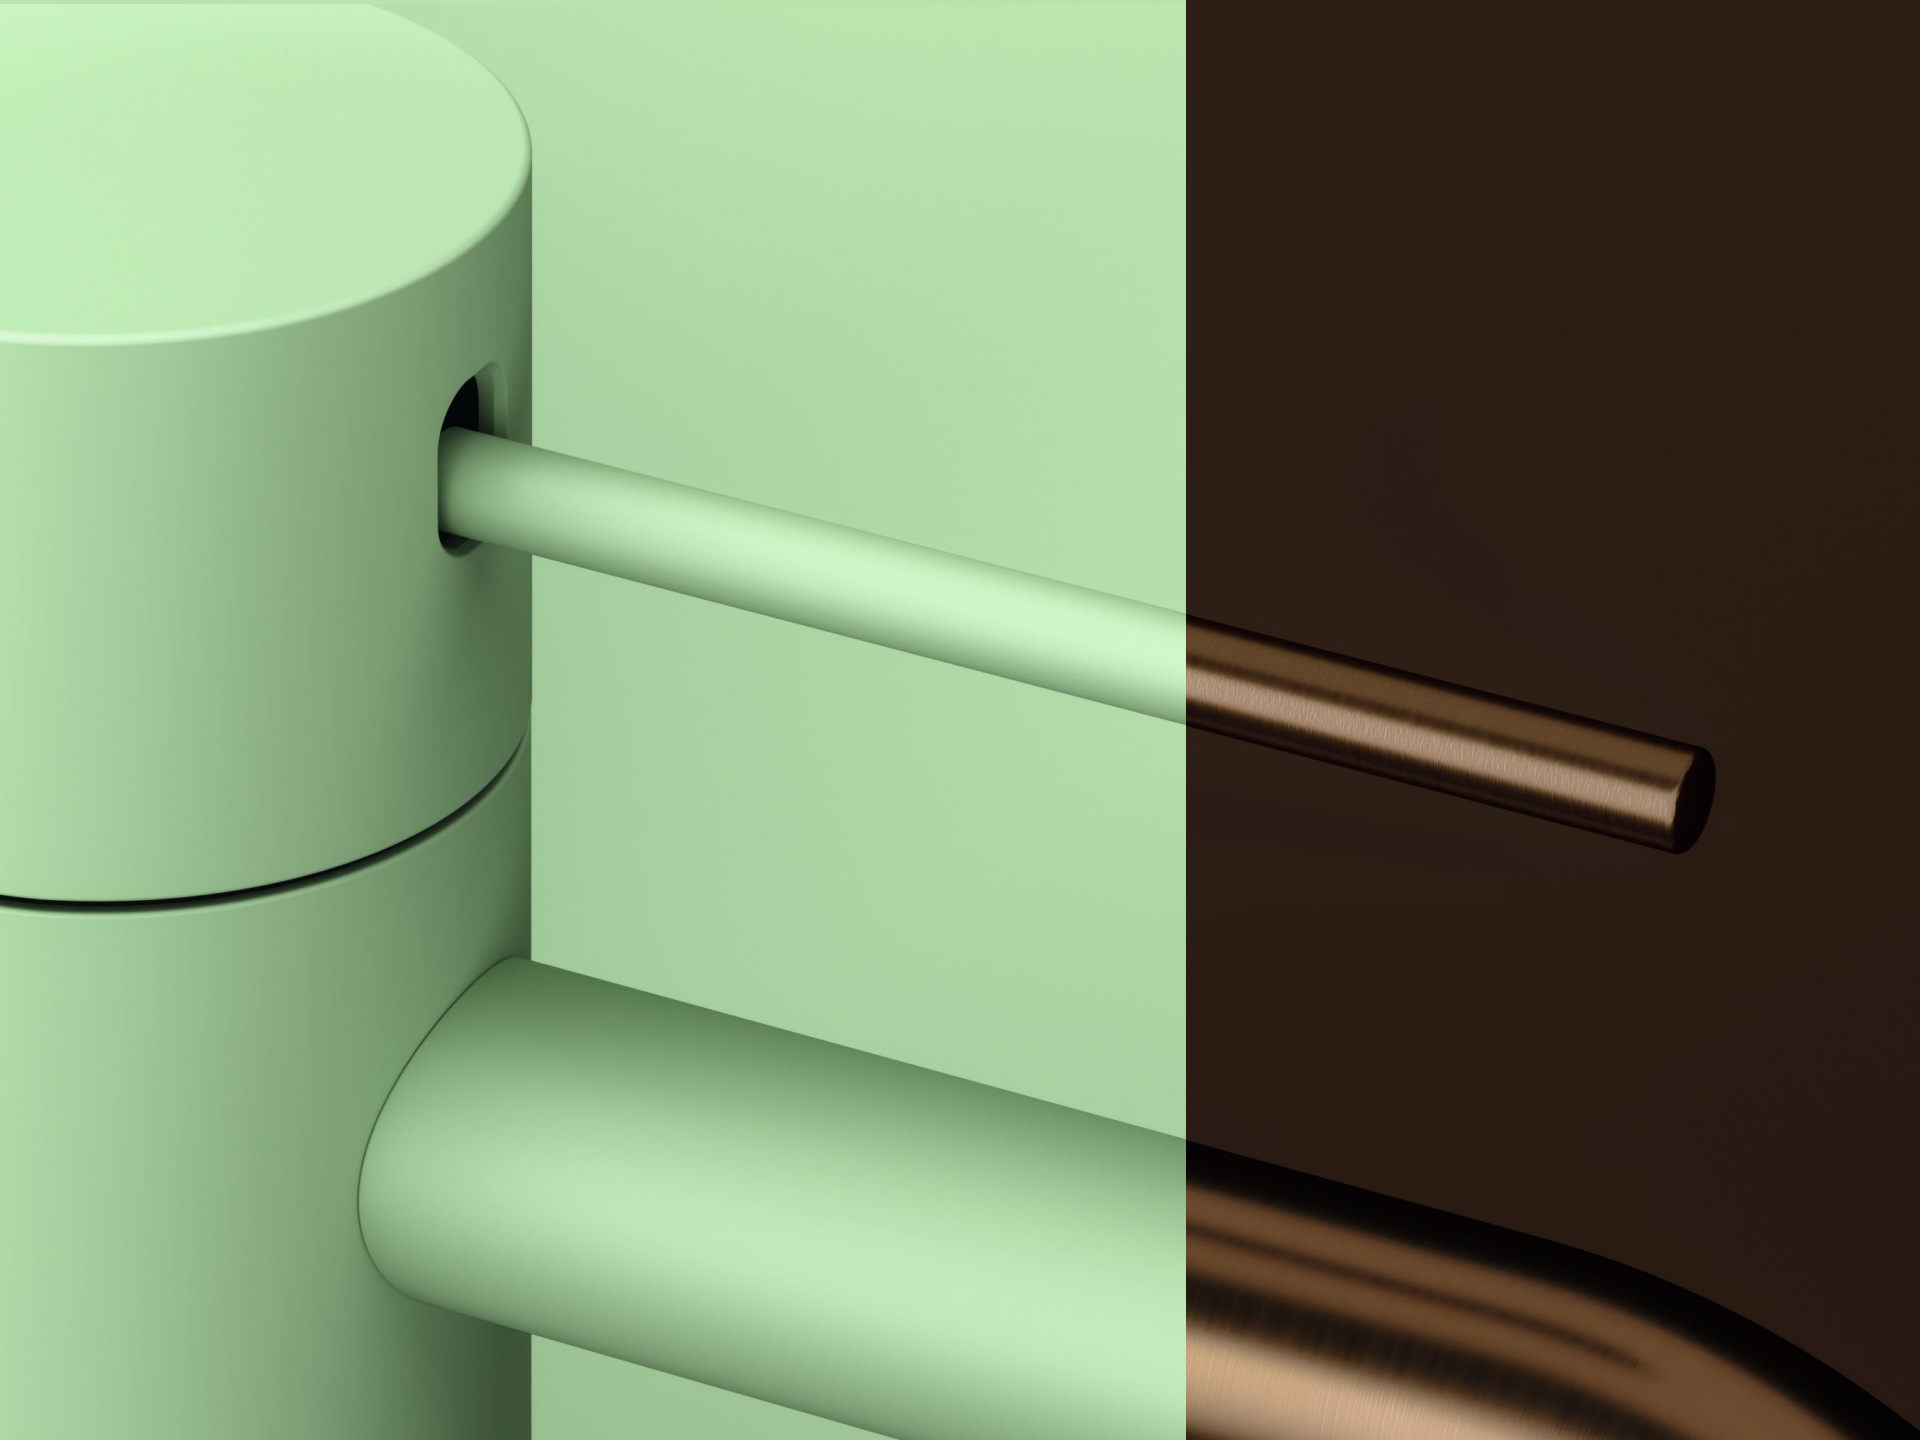

Less is more.
More than ever before.

Minimalism is increasingly affecting society as a whole.

A shift towards more individual forms of minimalism becomes apparent.

What do I need ?

What do I want ?

Reframing Minimalism.

Minimalism meets individuality.

Essential Minimalism

- cast concrete (walls)
- microfibre reinforced concrete (washstand)
- matt-finished green glass
- white glass
- wood

Sensual Reduction

A bright yellow, modern, single-lever faucet with a curved spout, mounted on a grey countertop.

Two bottles of 'LISBON GIRL' perfume. The larger bottle is dark with a white label that reads 'LISBON GIRL' and 'ESSENCE OF LISBON'. The smaller bottle is also dark with a white label.

A light-colored, textured towel draped over the edge of the grey countertop.

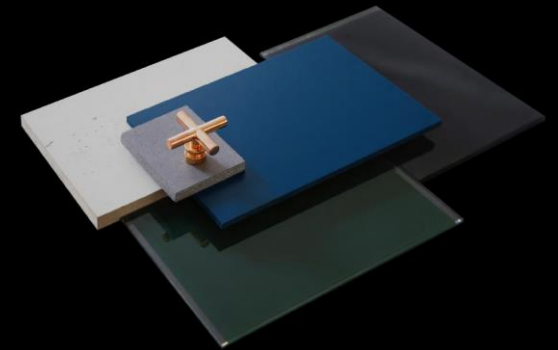

A large, textured panel with a repeating geometric pattern, possibly made of wood or stone, mounted on a dark wall.

A bright yellow wall or panel, illuminated from below, creating a warm glow.

Urban Mythology

- graphite-coloured tiles
- coated glass
(washstand carcass, dividers)
- painted wood
(cabinet carcass)
